an excursion to your city on the 30th, coming elections and offices are beginning to agitate the citizens of our county somewhat. Plenty of candidates for all of the offices, such as Clerk of the County Court, Clerk of the Circuit Court, Legislature, etc., etc., all sound democrats.

The voters are all well. All anxious to serve the dear people. The Democratic County Executive Committee met on last Saturday and decided to hold a primary election on the third Saturday in August next. All of the candidates are not yet announced and I may have occasion to speak of them again.

abolishing the county court.
There was some kind of a gathering at Wheeling, in this county, last Saturday, headed by Henry Kyle, the ostensible purpose of which I believe was to abolish the "County Court," whether of this particular county or all over the State I do not know. I would suggest the abolition of our county court first by way of a trial. The meeting was a warning of what they may expect if they do not regulate their conduct so as to meet the approval of the powers that be, let them remember that, "salus populi suprema lex esto."

ADVANTAGES OF WETZEL.
I notice in the papers from time to time persons making inquiry concerning West Virginia and West Virginia lands. Also as to what advantages can be offered to persons seeking homes in our State. I will say that we have a rough but fertile soil, a kind hearted and hospitable people, good pure water, a healthy climate, cheap lands and plenty to select from at low rates on long credit. There is no reason why active industrious men should live in cities and seek out bare existence for themselves and families for want of work to do when they can come here and in a few years own a home.
Any person who may read this article and desires any information in reference to the inducements offered can learn of them by writing to Samuel J. Robinson, Esq., New Martinsville, West Virginia, who will give information cheerfully.

SUNDAY ITEMS OF NEWS.
No rust on the wheat, good prospects for fruit of all kinds, and corn is most all planted.

THE EDITOR.
The "Democrat" and "Messenger" Editor's "spat" occasionally and Hart thinks he is a better looking man than Bob McElroy, or Willie the tall talking "quack" from "Monroe." His look is good.

Col. Ben. Wilson is the coming man judging from the sighing of the winds through the Democratic case brake.
Wheat harvest by the 15th, June, after that a dog days political campaign in

A Short Chapter on Out-Door
Sports.
The season has now arrived when outdoor sports are apropos. The caterpillar has left his den, the mosquito has turned in bed and uttered a warning shriek, and big green worms are skylarking around on shade trees and betting on their chances of dropping down behind a man's coat collar.

One of the leading lawn sports is called "Push and Cut." It is played with a machine called a lawn-mower. These machines are neatly put up, beautifully painted, and will make a racket in any climate. The player seizes them by a convenient handle and pushes them towards the green on a trot. The game is to find an old hoop-skirt, painting, oyster-can or catnip-bottle in the grass.
After two or three lessons the player will be amazed at his good luck in finding these things and making tally-marks.
Some players take a flying leap over the machine when it is in the old bed, but the rules of the game are liberal in that respect.
The player can, if he prefers, rush against the handle and knock a corner off his chin or bang his chestbone back into a corner.
